IT WAS HEAVEN'S WILL

How a Mother and Her Children Ban from a Seeming Danger.

A flushed woman dragged a small boy and a smaller girl into the Central station lunchroom on Friday afternoon and glanced about her with mingled ferocity and indecision. She was careful to scrutinize all the persons in the place, who comprised a dirty waiter, a fat traveling man and an official in uni-

"Now, you children, stay close to me," exclaimed the flushed woman in a loud voice. "These railroad stations are the worst places for cholera in the world."

She advanced upon the dirty waiter as she would approach a rampant wild

"Had anybody with cholera in here?" she demanded.

The waiter smiled and shook his head. "I don't believe it. It seems just to me as if everything was full of cholera. Here, don't you touch that!"

The small boy had evident designs upon the water cooler.

"If you drink that water," cried the woman excitedly, "you'll get cholera in a minute! Come on."

"But I'm thirsty, ma," protested the small boy. "Thirsty!"

She repeated the word with tremendous disdain.

"What business have you got to get thirsty when cholera-here, get right

The smaller girl, evidently in the hope of hastening matters, was essaying to climb upon a stool at the counter. "Don't you know"-

The smaller girl was jerked into the middle of the floor with a suddenness

The smaller girl had clearly not suspected anything of the sort. She began to cry. "Stand right here."

The flushed woman placed the children side by side in the farthest corner of the room. "Now I wonder," she mused aloud,

"what's good for them to eat." The smaller girl stopped crying promptly.

"Gimme a bun," she shouted with considerable ecstasy.

Horror was depicted on every linea-ment of the flushed woman's face.

"Don't you know"—— She almost shricked in her agitation. "that people who eat buns are the first to get cholera?"

The small boy and the smaller girl were impressed to that extent that they both broke into boisterous lamentations. "Stop your crying. Don't you know" She shook the boy and slapped the girl.
—"that it's the people who worry and cry that get the cholera first?"
"All aboard."

The official in uniform was calling the departure of the train.

"Mercy"— The flushed woman displayed symptoms of collapse.

--- "we've got to go and we didn't get a bite to eat." Gathering the weeping children together she swept from the room.
"It's heaven's will," she announced as she passed the dirty waiter, "If I'd'a' got anything here 'twould have been sure to give us all the cholera."

The official in uniform offered to as sist her to climb aboard the train, out she shrank from his touch as from contagion itself.-Cincinnati Commercial

"You appear to be gay and happy," said Smith to Brown, whom he met at a ball. "You look well fed, are well dressed, and all that. Must have a good income, I presume."

"Oh, yes," replied Brown; "I can't complain. I have my salary—$2,000. Then I make a couple of hundred by my literary labors; then I run in debt a couple of hundred; that makes $2,400. A single man who can't subsist on that ought to be ashamed of himself."-Boston Globe.

Officers of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. The Military Branch. At the recent session of the sovereign grand lodge the following officers were elected to serve for the next two years. All elected to serve for the next two years. All other officers are appointed: Grand sire, C. I. Campbell, London, Ont., Canada; deputy grand sire, J. W. Stebbins, of New York; grand secretary, Theodore A. Ross, of Newark, N. J.; grand treasurer, Isaao A. Shepard, of New York.

When the present term of office of Lieutenant General Underwood expires next year, the "army headquarters" of the L.O. F. will be abolished, and each Patriarch Militant branch of the order will be placed under the control of the state encampment within whose jurisdiction it is located.

Eight cantons have recently been organized in the state of New York, 3 in Indiana and 4 in Illinois.

The grand master of Indiana during his term delivered 40 addresses, wrote 1,600 let-ters and traveled 3,500 miles.

The sovereign grand lodge decided to hold the next annual meeting in Milwan-

Grand Secretary J. Terwilliger, of New York, will receive $300 additional to enable him to employ office help when necessary.

Whenever a lodge desires a special examination of a sick member the lodge and not the patient must bear the burden of expense—a just decision recently rendered by the grand lodge.

The total expenditures for relief during 1891 were $3,170,382.08.

The aggregate revenue of lodges and en-campments was $7,955,064.48, an increase of $183,000 over the previous year. Roger Williams lodge of Providence has paid a continuous benefit of $5 a week to one of its members for over 17 years. The relief board of Toronto paid out over $925 during the last six months to foreign brothers who were taken sick in that city. Number of cantons of Patriarchs Militant, 648; number of Chevaliers, 26,000.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Marvelous Growth of the Uniformed Rank. Helmet Glints.

The uniformed rank has grown beyond the fondest expectations of General Caraahan, its founder. It can no longer be considered an experiment, but must be regarded as an accomplished fact and as a most imporan accomplished fact and as a most impor-tant branch of the Pythian order. Illus-trative of the growth of the rank, the re-port says: "Fob. 19, 1890, the rank consisted of 698 divisions, a year later of 858 divisions, and on Feb. 19, 1892, of 985 divisions, with 90 divisions for the institution of which ap-plications have been approved since the date lust named above, making a total to date of 1,065 divisions, with an aggregate membership of more than 40,000, and with brigade and regimental organizations in brigade and regimental organizations in nearly every important grand jurisdiction."

Douglass and Gincinnati divisions of Cincinnati have been suspended from all privileges, rights and benefits of the uni-formed rank for the period of fifty days from June 25 for holding a picnic on Sunday, June 19.

The order of Knights of Pythias is the favorite among army men. It is the near-est to their profession, as it is semimilitary in character. President Grant and a number of noted generals, among whom was little Phil Sheridan, were members of the order during their lifetime.

The lodges of New York state suspended 974 members last year.

Colorado has sixty-two lodges, with 3,797 members, giving a gain of 797; resources amounting to $70,719.14; during the past year $13,503.81 was expended in relief and burging the dead. burying the dead.

Royal Arcanum.

During the year there were initiations, 17,080; admitted by card, 1,720; reinstated, 234; deaths, 1,071; permanent withdrawals, 98; suspensions, 2,668; withdrawals toother councils, 1,703. The average age assessed is 34 plus; average amount of assessment per member, $1.74 plus; average membership during the year, $18,674; death rate per 1,000 members, 9.03 plus.

The order is divided into departments The order is divided into departments under control of supervising deputy grand regents. Nearly all other orders are subdivided into districts. A committee has been appointed to submit a design for a new seal for the grand council.

The supreme council will next meet in Minneapolis in June, 1803.

The Royal Arcanum now has a building of its own in the city of Boston to be used as offices, and not a dollar is owed on it.

The World's Fair R. A. club is aiming to make its rooms the headquarters for all members of the order, so that all may feel perfectly at home upon their arrival at Chiange.

New York retains its position as the banner state of Royal Arcanism.

The grand council of New Jersey has issued a complete directory of each council in the state, with the officers' names and addresses, time and place of meeting, etc., in such form as can be conveniently used and carried in the vest pocket. It is very

The Catholic Benevolent union has in force in New York state insurance amounting to $32,000,000. The Artisans' Order of Mutual Protection is strong in Pennsylvania. It is constantly increasing in membership. The imperial council of the Mystic Shrine is now free from debt and has a balance of $26,571 in the treasury.

The aggregate insurance in force in death benefit orders in New York state amounts to nearly $500,000,000.

There are over 100 benefit societies in England alone and 5,000,000 members make up the great army. Millions upon millions of money are paid by them annually to the beneficiaries of their members.

Knights and Ladies of Honor.

There are at present five lodges in Philadelphia, with a membership of about 300. The order has a membership of over 70,000 in the United States, 4,000 of whom belong to this state. J. B. Billard is deputy grand protector for instituting English lodges in that city. The social features of the order are what make it interesting to those who belong. A man can bring in his wife and children of eligible age, and all share equal gights and privileges. L. B. Lockard, of Bradford, Pa., is supreme protector.

Old Secret Societies.

In England there are now in successful existence the following fraternal organizations of "ye olden time:" Count de Winton society, organized in 1157; Loyal Eva-nus society, organized in 1356; Hand in nus society, organized in 1356; Hand in Hand society, organized in 1606; Norman society, organized in 1703; Society of Lin-lot, organized in 1708.

THE COURTHOUSE COMPLETED.

It Will be Turned Over to the City To day.

The annex to the courthouse will be completed to-day and turned over to the board of public works by the contrac-tors, Menefee & Ware. It will probably be furnished and roady for occupancy at the next term of the circuit court. On the first floor are five office rooms and a vault for the city records.

The circuit courtroom, 36x44 and 22% feet pitch, is on the second floor. This room will be supplied with the necessary furniture for a courtroom and will afford comfortable and commodious quarters for Judge Dupuy's court. There are also on this floor two jury rooms and a private office for the judge.
